Forsyth

FORSYTH, the county seat of Taney county, is a beautiful and centrally located at the junction of the sparkling waters of the Swan with the swift and crystal current of beautiful White river. The site is ideal, and the little, well built and well painted city, fastened at the meeting of the waters like a gem at the throat of beauty, while the wooded ridges flank in every direction the central figure, all form a picture which lingers long in the memory of the visitor—and he usually comes back to refresh the picture.

The great Presbyterian church is now building here its college for southwestern Missouri and northwestern Arkansas, making of Forsyth a prominent college town. The fact that the committee representing the church has acquired an additional 120 acres of and affords some clue to the magnitude of the plans of the church. It is proposed to spend $50,000 on this school plant. School will open January 1, 1908.

We have a good graded school, a neat stone chapel open to all churches, a well supported union Sunday school, daily mails from all directions—in short, more advantages than many a more populous and wealthy community.

Well equipped mail and hack lines, with headquarters here, give daily connection with the Plains, at Chadwick, and the White River line of the Missouri Pacific, at Branson.

Most lines of business are represented, including general merchandise, drugs, millinery, hotels, livery, lumber, meat market, undertaking, printing, painting, milling, blacksmithing, carpentry, etcetera. We have an able and sufficiently numerous corps of lawyers, a good physician, and real estate men enough.

We need a resident dentist, a furniture store, a hardware store, a wood-working factory to utilize our native woods, and various other enterprises can find or make good openings.

The concrete fore-bay has been installed at the mill, and soon corn cracking will be in order again.

Quite a force gathered at the cemetery Saturday and tore down the old plank fence and erected a new wire fence in its place.

Julian Holliday's house caught fire last week, and only for some quick work on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Holliday it would have burned to the ground.

A. Blasigame is putting in a stock scale.

Corn and fodder saving furnishes the principal topic for discussion at the village store.

Chas. and John Snowden are each going to treat their houses to a coat of paint.

Molasses making is now in order. Willard Jones, Joe Hampton and D. R. Bain have had their cane made up.

The persimmon and the paw-paw are helping to relieve the shortage in food stuffs.

"The melancholy days are come"—ing; but it always seemed to me that the worthy poet erred when he said they were the saddest of the year. Falling leaves reveal the rich acorns and nuts, and the ripe persimmon trees give a new color to the bald knob hills.

Mrs. Wash Alsop and children, from Pinetop, visited Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Alsop's father, Rev. John Speers.

Miss Ethel Parnell is home from Branson, and Homer Parnell came in from Oklahoma last Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Fulkerson, with Miss Frances Brazel, visited Mrs. Willie Moore at Minec last week. It seemed like the good old days gone by to see Morris and Lily in town, but they will leave the first of October for their home in Oklahoma. Miss Francis will also go back to Oklahoma to resume her duties as a school teacher. This will be her third term in the same school.

Rev. Jim Rose commenced a protracted meeting last Thursday night, but was summoned home by telegraphic news of serious sickness in his family, his baby daughter having the diphtheria. Rev. B. Rose filed his place Sunday, and delivered an able and entertaining discourse.

Dick Smith, who lives on the old Wheeler place, has had all his hay and straw baled, ready to move, as the place has been sold.

J. A. T. Ladd, of Marionville, came down Friday last with two loads of fencing, and a new mowing machine for his farm, known as the Trout place.

Mrs. Frank Thomas, of Melva, spent last week with her husband's grandparents.

Chin Music.

Remember the pie supper at the court house Saturday night.

Those human addition lots are dandies. Better get one or two now. If.

The glorious tints of autumn in the Ozarks are beginning to catch the observant eye.

Johnny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brock, has been on the invalid list for several days.

If you want to make a quick sale of your realty list it with C. C. Blansit, Walnut Shade, Missouri.

J. N. Ray and Ben Lingenfelter, of Taneyville, made the Republican a business visit Monday morning.

Those J. C. Inman lots adjoining the college grounds are delightfully located. Better select one at once. If.

Robert, son of the Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Beattie, has been ill since Sunday, of a fever, not thought to be serious.

Last week the types made this paper talk about J. W. Burns' big mineral strike, while James Combs was the lucky man.

Ben Lingenfelter, of Taneyville, will have a closing out sale, preparatory to leaving Taney county, on Tuesday, September 29.

Mrs. J. W. Powell, who has been visiting for several weeks with old neighbors here and at Taneyville, departed Tuesday morning via Branson for her home at Alpena Pass, Arkansas.

Reports from many other localities have a tendency to confirm the opinion of many of our citizens that Taney is one of the best places in the world to get a good grip on and hold it.

The Springfield business college can give employment to about one hundred young women who desire to work for board while taking a course in school. Those who can pay for tuition and books should write to President J. A. Taylor.

J. T. Corbin and wife, of Day, were in town Friday and visitors at this item shop, having ridden over from Day, in the far northwest part of the county. We venture to say that few counties contain a greater percentage of horse-women than Taney. It is a form of exercise that might be encouraged, in the interest both of health and pleasure, in all localities.

That exciting serial which has had the run of these columns for some time past under the suggestive title, "Order of Publication," by those realistic authors, A. J. Brazeal, collector of the revenue, and J. C. L. McKnight, tax attorney, comes to an exciting close in this issue. Those who have followed this story with interest will doubtless be no less interested in the sequel, the first instalment of which will appear next week under the exciting title, "Sheriff's Sale." The author, Robert Adams, is noted for the brevity and forcefulness of his literary work, and those who follow his latest effort will no doubt find it even more "taking" than the story just closing.

I wish to announce to the ladies of Forsyth and vicinity that I have now open at my residence in West Forsyth, one of the largest and most varied stocks of millinery ever shown here, consisting of all that is new and beautiful, and this fall's styles are exceedingly lovely. A great variety of trimmed and untrimmed shapes. My stock is all new, so you will run no risk of getting anything not strictly up to date in buying of me, and the variety is so great there is something to suit each one. Terms strictly cash, and a 25 per cent deposit on special orders. Mrs. A. J. Brazeal.

ARE YOU GOING TO BUILD?

Voters should not permit their prejudices against or their preferences for individuals to cloud the issues when it comes to making up their ballot. A voter who believes in maintaining the American standard of wages and living—and they stand or fall together—cannot without stultifying himself vote for a Democrat to go to Jefferson City to help choose a United States senator, who will in turn have a voice in the making of a tariff which will have an influence in determining the price of every day's labor in the country. And while voting for a Republican representative remember that all the candidates represent the choice of the Republicans of the county, freely expressed at an untrammelled primary, and that to each of them you owe the courtesy of fair play, which includes one vote, unless you have absolute knowledge that a candidate is unfit or incapable—and the people of Taney have nominated none such, on either side.

Do you want to locate near The School of the Ozarks, to send your children to school? If so, buy some of those choice residence lots of J. C. Inman. Prices are reasonable.

Mrs. B. B. Price has opened her millinery store at her old stand, where she has received new goods, with plenty more coming daily, all of which are up to their usual standard of style and excellence. She will have no formal opening, but invites all her old customers, and as many prospective customers as possible, to come in and prove her statements by examining the goods on the shelves.

A clever, popular, candy cold cure tablet—called Preventives—is being dispensed by druggists everywhere. In a few hours, Preventives are said to break any cold—completely. And Preventives, being so safe and toothsome, are very fine for children. No quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh or sickening. Box of 48—25c. Sold by City Drug Store.

Wm. Caudel desires to inform the public that he has bought the hack line of Henry Brock, and will continue the business, carrying passengers, baggage and express matter, at the lowest prices consistent with good service.

Dr. Green, the Springfield Dentist, will be at Forsyth, Sept. 27, 28, 29. High class dental work done. Reasonable prices. Office with Dr. Mitchell. 2t

Services at the Stone Chapel.

There will be services at the Stone Chapel next Sabbath as follows:

Sabbath School..... 10 a. m.

Morning Service..... 11 a. m.

Evening Service..... 8 p. m.

You are cordially invited to attend these services. W. E. BEATTIE, Pastor.

Big Pie Supper and Program.

Carrying out a plan promulgated by Prof. A. J. Hicks, the Sunday and public schools and S. O. have prepared a literary and musical program to be given Saturday night in the court room, followed by a "pie supper." The proceeds are to be equally divided between the school library fund and the county Sunday School association fund. A very interesting program may be expected, the cause is a most worthy one, and a large crowd should be present. Similar entertainments are to be held all over the county for the same purpose tomorrow evening.

THE SCHOOL OF THE OZARKS.

Contributed by a student.

Room-a-lack-a, boom a-lack-a.
Bow, wow, wow.
Chick-a-lack-a, chick a-lack-a.
Chow, chow, chow.
Who are we? who are we?
School of the Ozarks.
Yes sir-ee.

The students have set the stamp of approval upon the new principal, Prof. G. G. Robertson, and only words of praise are on the lips of patrons. He first appeared before the student body Wednesday morning of last week. His talk was concise, and emphasized the importance of hard work as a factor in building up our school.

Our bread, due Wednesday, was two days tardy. Thanks to the ability of our cook, we had a fine substitute in some excellent biscuits and pancakes.

Rev. W. E. Beattie conducted chapel exercises Thursday morning.

Our farm superintendent, B. F. Hall, and sons Harrison and Luther, left Saturday to attend the meeting of the Baptist association at Kentucky Hollow. They report a good meeting, and were glad to note an old student, Albert Ashlock, as a delegate.

During the absence of the superintendent Joel Conner has been farm "boss." The result of five hours under his direction was 650 pounds of tomatoes delivered to the cannery and several bushels of beans stored.

True to his mission, Professor Robertson made a visit to the Taneyville reunion Saturday to advertise our school.

As we have no study hall we all collect Saturday night in the reading room. After Miss Pogue had given us some fine music we listened to and laughed at a humorous reading by Mr. Oliver. A circle was then formed and the remainder of the time spent in telling stories, in which Prof. Robertson carried off the palm.

Master Harry Bradbury arrived on the Chadwick back Sunday evening. He has been a boarder in the school from the first opening day, and now enters Fifth grade. He spent vacation at his home in Kansas City.

Prof. Robertson led the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening. As the society has not reorganized this year he appointed Messrs. Oliver and Aubrey a committee to confer on this and other matters pertaining to the society.

Last readers infer that only the papers mentioned last week come to our reading table we would further name: Ladies' Home Journal, World's Events, American Machinist, Good Housekeeping, The Missionary, Onward, St. Joseph News Press, Branson Echo, Success, and Taney County Republican.

"The Sou'wester," published by the juniors at Drury, reached our reading table the other day. It is full of pictures, poems, cartoons, stories and jokes illustrative of life at Drury. One of its best features is a history of the school for the past year.

The Principal found his way to the hearts of the boys Monday by announcing that he was trying to secure some gymnasium supplies and by taking us to the river for a fine swim.

We boys just can't forget those pears we got at the canning factory. They weren't quite as big as those in the Republican showcase, but they were more tangible.

The Principal informed us in chapel yesterday morning that he will canvass for students, and money to take care of them. In a few words looking toward the future he emphasized the part to be devoted to manual training as soon as the census can be put in. Mr. Robertson's business career has eminently qualified him to manage the affairs of the school.

The literary society will meet Saturday afternoon to reorganize.

The Athletic association met yesterday in Room 1, with Professor Robertson as temporary chairman. Mr. Conner in the highest degree is known only to those who stick to the old shoes. Don't deprive yourself of the luxury of foot-ease. Have the old shoes mended so neatly, cheaply and well that the pleasure will be equally divided between paying for the job and wearing it afterwards.

Forsyth Milling Company.

Foot Comfort

GEORGE GLADSON, Forsyth, Mo

was chosen chairman and Mr. Oliver secretary of the meeting. Mr. Everett was chosen president of the association, with Arlie Blansit for secretary-treasurer and Clint McDade for yell-master. A motion prevailed to extend the scope of the association to tennis and basketball. Charlie Baldwin, G. G. Robertson, Manfred Boles, Claud Copher, Lee Adams, Earl Adams, George Felton, Err Johnson, Barton Everett, Harry Harding and Guy Everett were admitted to the association. Arlie Blansit, Clint McDade were made a committee to solicit additional funds.

We tender our thanks to Mr. Jack Brazeal for the gift of a tennis outfit.

The girls are also interesting themselves in athletics, and will get a basketball. Here is the line up:

Miss Pogue enrolled two new students today. They are Harry Bradbury and Oscar Crockett. Master Oscar takes fourth grade work. Lula McManus was enrolled in the eighth grade by Mr. Oliver.

Last week we mentioned a number of prizes to be awarded graduates of the common schools of Taney county. In addition to those noted last week we wish to say that the State Normal school at Springfield offers a years scholarship to the pupil who makes the best record in the county. The one who makes the best record in each municipal township will be given a three months scholarship.

We sent about 900 pounds of tomatoes to the canning factory this morning. The reader must not infer that tomatoes, beans, cabbage, onions, corn and potatoes are the only things to be found on the school property. We have two cows, some swine and several chickens as well.

Miss Craig made some calls down town Monday, and returned with a great bunch of roses.

Miss Grace keeps study hall this week.

The Endeavor topic for next Sunday is: Home Missions—The Call of the City. Genesis 18:16-33.

The school has been requested to lend a hand on the program for the pie supper down town Saturday night, and Mr. Oliver has been appointed to arrange for our portion. We are sorry we were not notified in time to make preparation, but we will try to furnish a few things that will be of interest. We understand that the receipts are to be divided between the school and Sunday school libraries.

As we will have the help of the assistant editors next week, you may expect a newsy edition. Keep your eye on the S. O. column.

A Barger In Town.

His name is "bad cough." He doesn't care for gold or silver but he will steal your health away. If he appears in your house arrest him at once with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It may mean consumption if you don't. A cure for all coughs, colds and chest troubles. Price 25c, 50c and $1 per bottle. Sold by J. W. Owens, Proteem, Mo.

Hillcrest.

WANDERING JEW.

Though most of our folks are plowing today, some are threshing, and still others are loafing.

Miss Emma Stolpe came in from St. Louis the first of the week to spend her vacation at home.

Mollie Nuss returned to Kansas City Friday, after a ten days' vacation spent in the Frank Nuss home.

The "spelling" at Lone Star Wednesday night was fairly successful. We understand there will be another at Cedar grove next week.

James Hoyt, of McFarland, transacted business at J. C. Lathrop's the other day.

Omah Parrill is steadily convalescing from an attack of fever.

Mrs. Mamie Peterson, of Vesper, Kansas, is expected here next week on a visit to the parental N. C. Peterson abode. Her husband, N. P. Peterson, a prominent stockman of Lincoln county, accompanying her as far as Kansas City, to purchase stock.
